

Weld County Social Media Commenting Policy

The purpose of county social media sites is to provide information about Weld County services and programs, as well as other information that is of public interest to residents, businesses and visitors. We encourage you to submit your questions, comments, and concerns, but please note that county social media sites are not a public forum. They are moderated online discussion sites which are similar to a public meeting of the Board of County Commissioners. As such, Weld County reserves the right to delete comments based on any of the following:

1. Vulgar language;
2. Personal attacks of any kind;
3. Comments or content that promotes, fosters, or perpetuates discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color, age, religion, gender, marital status, genetics, status with regard to public assistance, national origin, physical or intellectual disability or sexual orientation;
4. Spam or links to other sites;
5. Discussion not relevant to topic;
6. Advocating illegal activity;
7. Promoting particular services, products, or political organizations;
8. Infringing on copyrights or trademarks;
9. Personal information including, but not limited to, identification numbers, phone numbers, emails, personally identifiable medical information; or
10. Information that may compromise the safety, security or proceedings of public systems or any criminal or civil investigations.

Please note that the comments expressed by members of the public who are not Weld County officials or employees do not necessarily reflect the opinions and position of Weld County.
